Under the seal of this Court, the foregoing is a true copy of the disposition of the above listed case in the Superior Court of the District of Columbia.

Deputy Clerk, Jeffrey Woodson

Acquitted

The legal and formal certification of the innocence of a person who has been charge with a crime. A finding of not guilty.

Dismissed for Want of Prosecution

An order or judgment disposing of the charges without a trial. An involuntary dismissal accomplished on the Court's own motion for lack of prosecution or on motion from the defendant for lack of prosecution or failure to introduce evidence of facts on which relief may be granted. The dismissal is without prejudice which allows the prosecutor the right to re-bring the charges at a later date.

Dismissal

The United States Attorney's Office of the District of Columbia or the Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia filed a Dismissal for the incident that lead to your arrest. This means that the arrest charge has been dismissed without prejudice.

Found Guilty – Plea

Formal admission in court as to guilt of having committed criminal act charged which a defendant may make if he or she does so intelligently and voluntarily. It is equivalent to and is binding as a conviction after trial and it has the same effect as a verdict of guilty and authorizes imposition of punishment prescribed by law.

Non Jury Trial Guilty

Trial held before a Judge sitting without a jury. Pronouncement by a Judge adjudging the defendant guilty of the offense charged.

Jury Trial Not Guilty

Formal pronouncement by a jury that they adjudge the defendant not guilty of the offense charged.

Jury Trial Guilty

Formal pronouncement by a jury that they adjudge the defendant guilty of the offense charged.

Non Jury Trial Not Guilty

Trial held before a Judge sitting without a jury. Pronouncement by a Judge adjudging the defendant not guilty of the offense charged.

No Papered

The United States Attorney's Office of the District of Columbia or the Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia has declined to proceed with prosecution against you for the incident that leads to your arrest. This means that your arrest has been NO PAPERED, however the prosecuting attorney can proceed with prosecution at a later date.

There is no PUBLIC record of your arrest in the Court's database however; you now have an arrest record. An arrest record is a record in the law enforcement database that contains your name, date of your arrest, the charges for which you were arrested, and other personal information such as your date of birth. An arrest record is not a conviction however, if you apply for a job the arrest information may be disclosed to potential employees.

Nolle Diversion

The United States Attorney's Office of the District of Columbia or the Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia has agreed to nolle prosequi this case because the defendant has complied with the conditions of his/her release as ordered by the Court.

Nolle Prosequi

The United States Attorney's Office of the District of Columbia or the Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia filed a Nolle Prosequi for the incident that led to your arrest. This means that your arrest charge has been dismissed without prejudice.

Post and Forfeit

The Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) or the Office of the Attorney General for the District of Columbia has resolved the incident that leads to your arrest using the Post and Forfeit procedure.

The Post and Forfeit procedure allows a person charged with certain offenses to post and forfeit an amount as collateral (which otherwise would serve as security upon release to ensure the arrestee's appearance at trial) and thereby obtain a full and final resolution of the offense. The agreement to resolve the offense using the Post and Forfeit procedure is final.
